

I have received an email from Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter stating that the CONSUMER BANKERS ASSOCIATION is attempting to challenge and possibly weaken Indiana's Telephone privacy law. I put my telephone number on the "Do Not Call" list because I DO NOT wish to have unsolicited calls coming to my home. The number of interruptions I would experience during the day, even up to 9pm at night was appalling! I began to experience a feeling of dread every time the phone would ring, because I knew that it was likely to be someone trying to sell me something, or get me to agree to try some service that "would be free for the first 3 months." Since I have been on the do-not-call list, I have had to deal with very few unwanted calls, and I do not wish matters to return to their former state. I definitely oppose any action that would weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.
